

Call for Applications

Workshop for Educators and Researchers from Central Asia

The Research Center of Jews in Central Asia and the Iranian Sphere at the Ben-Zvi Institute, Jerusalem, is calling for applications for a week-long workshop that will focus on the development of research and teaching on topics related to the Jewish presence in Central Asia and the Caucasus and the history of the State of Israel.

The workshop will be held in Jerusalem on Nov 3-10, 2025.

While focusing on researchers and teachers of higher education, the organizers seek a broad spectrum of professionals from various research disciplines, such as but not limited to history, ethnography, culture, arts, and demography who are interested in engaging in research, developing their teaching curricula, and including the above-mentioned topics into their classes and research interests. During the week-long workshop, various research tools and syllabuses will be introduced to the participants and they will be able to work on and develop their own projects with leading experts in various fields.

To Apply, Please send your proposals to Zeev Levin: Zeev@ybz.org.il

- A 1-page Description of interest and how this workshop could be used in teaching and future research.
- A 1-page CV
